This Joint Stipulation to Continue the Case Management Conference is filed jointly by all parties in the above listed cases pursuant to this Court's instruction.

Pursuant to guidance from the Court, all the parties by and through their counsel herein in the following related cases, HEREBY STIPULATE AND AGREE:

Chelsea, LLC et al. v. Regal Stone, Limited, et al., Case No. C-07-5800

U.S. et al. v. M/V Cosco Busan, et al., Case No. 07-06045

Continental Insurance Co., et al. v. Cota, et al., Case No. 08-02052

People of the State of California v. Regal Stone, Ltd. et al., Case No. 08-02268

Regal Stone, et al. v. Cota, et al., Case No. 08-05098

People of the State of California ex rel. Department of Fish and Game et al. v. Regal Stone Ltd. et al., Case No. 09-01469

1. A plea has been entered by defendant John Cota in the pending criminal case related to the November 7, 2007 allision and resulting oil spill involving the M/V COSCO BUSAN, U.S. v. Cota, et al., Case No. CR 08-0160-1 SI-2, with sentencing set for June 2009. Trial of defendant Fleet Management Ltd. in the criminal case presently is set for mid-September 2009. In view of the still pending criminal case, the parties stipulate and agree that the May 1, 2009 Case Management Conference scheduled by this Court shall be continued until September 25, 2009. In addition, the parties agree that by September 18, 2009, the parties shall submit a Consolidated Joint Case Management Conference Statement ("Joint CMC Statement"). This Joint CMC Statement shall be a single document and include all of the related actions.

2. The parties further stipulate and agree that the stay currently in effect for all the related civil actions pending before this Court (Case Nos. C-07-5800, 07-05926, 07-06045, 08-02052, 08-02268, 08-05098, 09-01469) shall be continued through the proposed September 25th Case Management Conference, at which time the parties and the Court can evaluate the status of the criminal case, if any remains pending, at that time.

IT IS SO STIPULATED AND AGREED.
